

Walking Midnight

© Bradbury

One for the road, one for the rain
And that lady in black
Think I'll go talking, maybe go walking
Don't think I'll be coming back

And that lady is watching me
Gonna take her away
Now she wants to come walk with me
I'm no loser maybe we'll go walking midnight

Walk down the lane, says hey what's your game
Are you leading me on
Looks in my eyes and tells me I'm telling lies
So pretty soon she'll be gone

And that lady is watching me
Gonna take her away
Now she wants to come walk with me
I'm no loser maybe we'll go walking midnight
Walking midnight

She turns back to look at an empty street
Hey it's just you and me
So lets slip on to where it's all happening
Pretty soon you will see

And that lady is watching me
Gonna take her away
Now she wants to come walk with me
I'm no loser maybe we'll go walking midnight
Walking midnight
